“FANTASTIC WEEKEND”

Crans Montana, Switzerland, January 2016

Get out there

Just because you're flying solo doesn't mean this can't be your best summer ever. Following the massive success of Match Nights and Socials over the past three years we have taken our events to the next level by offering fantastic holidays.

But these aren't your average sit by the pool and top up your tan holidays. These are activity-packed, party-'til-you-drop trips away where you will get the chance to meet LOADS of singles. So whether you go to make friends, simply to take a break from work or you really fancy a summertime fling, make Match Holidays your first destination... and let the good times roll!

Can I bring a friend?

We're big advocates of breaking through that shyness barrier and getting out there but we also understand that holidays can be a lot more fun when you go with a friend.

If you'd like to bring a wingman along to a Match Holiday simply pay for yourself, return to the event page on the site and click on the 'Pay for a friend' button.
